

Schoenherr is a leading European full-service law firm with a strong footprint in Central Eastern Europe (CEE). The firm operates 16 offices in 15 countries. Schoenherr combines an international mindset with solid local knowledge. Trusted by global and regional clients for its high-end capabilities, Schoenherr delivers cross-border legal solutions at the highest international standards, built on market knowledge, legal technology and innovation.

We are looking for a part-time:

Student (m|f|x) Dispute Resolution - International Arbitration

job profile

Your focus in the Dispute Resolution practice group will be arbitration (international arbitration; commercial arbitration; investment arbitration). You will work on high-profile cases in an international environment and you will be directly involved in proceedings and consultations.

we are looking for

- advanced law school students;
- interest in international arbitration;
- experience / background / extracurricular work in international arbitration;
- fluent spoken and written English;
- excellent command of MS Office, especially Outlook, Word and PowerPoint;
- a positive approach to challenging legal work in an international environment;
- ability to cooperate, communicate and work in a team

we offer

- involvement in ongoing commercial and investment arbitration proceedings;
- insights into one of the leading international arbitration practices;
- direct working relationship with our international offices;
- ongoing individual and team training opportunities

The gross salary per month amounts to a minimum of € 2.400- (basis full-time), with a clear commitment to paying more in line with your professional experience and qualifications.

Be a part of our successful team and send your application (CV, letter of motivation, certificates and a legal writing sample) to our Human Resources Department or apply online. For further questions you can reach us on +43 1 53437 50729.

apply online

Weiterführende Informationen zu Schönherr finden Sie auf unserer Website www.schoenherr.eu.